

Youth Mobility for Social Inclusion and Wellbeing

Move to gather is a European volunteering project which aims at promoting youth participation. Four volunteers from Italy, Ukraine, Spain and France are in the middle of a journey towards their self-discovery and growth. This will be the opportunity to show them, among other things, that in a fair society no one should be left behind, but we should all move forward together.

OBJECTIVES:

Promote the recovery of people with mental health issues.

Fight against stigma.

Promote the inclusion of four young people in the labour market.

Promote youth participation in the creation of a more inclusive society.
